determination that this stock is subject to overfishing because 2017 landings were greater than the OFL. NMFS has notified the South Atlantic and the Gulf of Mexico Fishery Management Councils that they must take action to end overfishing on these stocks.

NMFS has further determined that the Eastern Pacific Ocean yellowfin tuna is now subject to overfishing. This determination is based on a 2018 assessment by the Inter-American Tropical Tuna Commission (IATTC) scientific staff, using data through 2017. Based on domestic status determination criteria, this stock is subject to overfishing because the maximum fishing mortality rate (F) proxy is greater than the maximum fishing mortality threshold (MFMT). NMFS has determined that section 304(i) of the Magnuson-Stevens Act applies because the overfishing of Eastern Pacific yellowfin tuna stocks is due largely to excessive international fishing pressure and because it has not been determined that the management measures adopted by the IATTC in 2018 will end overfishing. NMFS has informed the Pacific Fishery Management Council of its obligations for domestic and international management under Magnuson-Stevens Act sections 304(i) to address domestic and international impacts.

NMFS has also determined that Atlantic bigeye tuna is now overfished and remains subject to overfishing. This determination is based on a 2018 assessment, using data through 2017. Based on the domestic status determination criteria for overfishing and overfished, the stock is overfished because SSB is calculated to be less than the MSST. The results indicate the stock is subject to overfishing because F in 2017, compared to F at MSY, or F the MSST. The results indicate the stock is subject to overfishing because F_{2015-2016} is greater than MFMT, and overfished because the SSB_{2016} is less than MSST. The Pacific Fishery Council has taken action to end domestic overfishing on this stock.

Finally, NMFS has determined that St. Matthew Island blue king crab is now overfished. This determination is based on a 2018 assessment, using survey data through 2018. The assessment supports a determination of overfished because the annual mature male biomass (MMB_{2016}) estimate is less than the MSST for this stock. NMFS has notified the North Pacific Fishery Management Council that it must develop a rebuilding plan for this fishery.

Record of Decision for the Emergency Beddown of the F–22 Formal Training Unit and Associated T–38 Aircraft From Tyndall Air Force Base to Eglin Air Force Base, Florida Special Environmental Assessment

AGENCY: Department of the Air Force

ACTION: Notice of availability of a Record of Decision.

ADDRESS: For questions regarding this ROD please contact: Mr. Mike Spait, Eglin AFB Public Affairs Office, 96 TWPA, 101 West D Avenue, Room 238, Eglin AFB, FL 32542–5499; telephone: (850) 882–2836; or email: spaitm@eglin.af.mil.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: The ROD contains the Air Force’s finding that the temporary beddown and continuing operations of 31 F–22 Formal Training Unit (FTU) aircraft and 17 T–38 Talon adversary air support aircraft at Eglin AFB, Florida, is necessary to control the impacts of the emergency created by Hurricane Michael in early October 2018. It also reflects the Air Force’s decision to continue the interim beddown and recurring operations of the F–22 FTU and its adversary air support at Eglin AFB, as analyzed in the three timeline-based scenarios of the Proposed Action in the April 2019 Final Special EA, in whole or in part, until it becomes superseded by the full implementation of the decision to be made in the ROD on the Final EIS for its permanent beddown. Additionally, it announces the Air Force’s decision to reduce the rate of closed-pattern operations per sortie for both F–22s and T–38s throughout the period of construction-related closure of Runway 12/30.

The decision was based on matters discussed in the F–22 FTU and Associated T–38 Aircraft from Tyndall Air Force Base to Eglin Air Force Base, Florida Special Environmental Assessment (EA), contributions from the public and regulatory agencies, and other relevant factors. Public Notification was published in the Northwest Florida Daily News on February 28, 2019, announcing the availability of the Draft Special EA for a 30-day public review and comment period. The final Special EA and signed ROD are available at the following web page: https://www.leidoseng.com/eglin22sea/final_documents.aspx.

Authority: This Notice of Availability is published pursuant to the regulations (40 CFR part 1506.6) implementing the provisions of the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 (42 U.S.C. 4321 et seq.) and the Air Force’s Environmental Impact Analysis Process (32 CFR parts 989.21(b) and 989.24(b)(7)).
