Program Summary

Impact America will have AmeriCorps members implement service-learning projects related to health and economic opportunity in Alabama, Tennessee, North Florida, and South Carolina. At the end of the first program year, the AmeriCorps members will be responsible for providing free vision screenings and follow-up care to 86,000 low-income children and preparing tax returns for 12,100 low-income families. In addition, the AmeriCorps members will leverage an additional 900 volunteers who will be engaged in conducting vision screenings at hundreds of childcare centers and assisting with free tax preparation at 30 IRS Volunteer Income Tax Assistance sites managed by Impact America. This program will focus on the CNCS focus areas of Healthy Futures and Economic Opportunity.
