Program Summary

The Keystone SMILES (Service Making an Impact through Learning Experiences with Students) Community Learning Center will have AmeriCorps members provide expanded learning and service learning activities to students in 25 schools and 12 non-profits located in 12 rural counties throughout Northwestern Pennsylvania. At the end of the first program year, the AmeriCorps members will be responsible for increasing the academic engagement of 4,425 students and the academic performance of 4,130 students. In addition, the AmeriCorps members will leverage an additional 4,500 volunteers who will be engaged in service-learning projects and expanded learning activities. The program will focus on the CNCS priority area of Education.
