Subject line: You've got a Front Row Seat to the Social Innovation Fund's 5th Annual Convening & Celebration!

Text: Next week, the Social Innovation Fund is hosting a one-of-a-kind event focused on innovation, evidence and scale in Washington, D.C. This gathering coincides with the program's fifth anniversary. This key White House initiative and program of the Corporation for National and Community Service has invested more than $700 million in public and private funds, in more than 200 high-impact nonprofits that have employed evidence-based practices to generate change in communities around the country. The gathering, "Celebrating Five Years of Innovation, Inspiration and Impact" will also include the announcement of new grantees and more than $50 million in new grants.

You can join in the celebration! Thanks to a livestream series, you can have a front-row seat to engaging conversation with industry thought leaders:

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 17

1:15 P.M. – 3:00 P.M. EST

Opening Plenary and Town Hall

The opening plenary will speak about the origins of the SIF, how the program has evolved over the years, what the SIF is adding to the social sector, and will announce the 2014 SIF Grantee recipients. There will be two panels with subgrantee service recipients and 2014 new grantee CEOs. The panels will be moderated by Stacy Palmer, Editor of the Chronicle of Philanthropy. There will be time for questions posed by both the audience in the room and those viewing the Town Hall via live stream. This session will also highlight local program recipients.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 18

12:30 – 2:30 PM

Social Innovation Summit – SIF Edition brought to you by JPMorgan Chase & Co. in partnership with Time Warner

The Luncheon will feature several dynamic speakers, including Kimberly Bryant from Black Girls Code, Seth Goldman from Honest Tea, Kirsten Lodal from LIFT, Ben Rattray from Change.org, Rashad Robinson from Color of Change, and Andrew Yang from Venture for America. The presentation will be a combination of fireside chats and lightening talks. Erin Hogan of JPMorgan Chase & Co. and Michael Smith will be moderating the fireside chats.
