Program Summary

CARITAS AmeriCorps will provide navigation through homeless services, mentor those in recovery, and assist participants in a job-readiness program in Richmond. Twelve members will be unemployed or economically disadvantaged prior to their service. At the end of the first year, AmeriCorps members will help individuals and families transition into housing, find employment, move from shelter to stability, and address addictions.

Members will leverage 1,000+ volunteers who provide services to individuals experiencing homelessness and learning to live sober lives. This program will target the CNCS focus area of Economic Opportunity.
