AmeriCorps*NCCC Team Leader Application
What is AmeriCorps*NCCC?
AmeriCorps*National Civilian Community Corps (NCCC) is a program of the Corporation for National and Community Service. The AmeriCorps programs, engage 50,000 men and women each year in service to meet community needs. AmeriCorps*NCCC is a residential national service program that provides opportunities for young Americans to perform service that meets critical needs in urban and rural communities. AmeriCorps*NCCC members, working in teams of 11 to 14, focus on projects that protect and conserve natural resources, promote public safety, and help meet the educational and other unmet needs of people of all ages. Many members and team leaders are also trained to assist with disaster relief and recovery projects.

What is the AmeriCorps*NCCC team leader program?
The team leader program brings together citizens of all ages and backgrounds who are committed to national service to provide experience and leadership to AmeriCorps*NCCC team members as they work to strengthen American communities.

How are team leaders compensated?
In exchange for an 11-month commitment to the program, team leaders receive a living allowance of $12,500, room and board, and limited health and child care benefits. Like AmeriCorps*NCCC members, team leaders receive a post-service education award of $4,725 following the completion of their term of service.

What do team leaders do?
Team leaders manage the day-to-day activities of 11 to 14 corps members, ages 18 to 24. Team leaders also serve as role models, facilitators, and educators, and encourage high personal standards for corps members involved in community service-learning projects.

Who can be a team leader?
AmeriCorps*NCCC seeks applicants who are experienced supervisors with prior service experience in communities, schools, the Peace Corps, AmeriCorps*VISTA, youth corps programs, or the U.S. military, and who have demonstrated leadership experience.

Where do team leaders serve?
AmeriCorps*NCCC team leaders serve at one of five regional campuses in, Charleston, S.C.; Denver, Colo.; Perry Point, Md.; Sacramento, Calif.; Washington, D.C.

AmériCorps*National Civilian Community Corps Team Leader Position Description

POSITION OVERVIEW
The team leader manages the day-to-day activities of 11 to 14 members, ages 18 to 24. He or she serves as a role model, facilitator, and educator, and encourages high standards for members involved in community-based, service projects. The team leader reports directly to a unit leader.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES
- Supervise, motivate, direct, and coordinate a team of young adults in a structured program of service, education, and training; maintain order; develop a positive team morale; foster teamwork; monitor standards of behavior; ensure the safety of members, including the proper use of equipment; model a good work ethic and work alongside members to set the work pace.

- Plan daily and weekly team schedules that will result in the execution of project objectives and activities. Manage service-learning projects, locally or on spikes (sites away from the main campus where teams establish temporary living arrangements for up to two months).

- Assist and support member development through regular assessment and goal setting. Ensure the development of good work habits on site as well as career and interpersonal skills off site.

- Assist and support members in the development of leadership skills. Identify and nurture leadership opportunities at the service project site and otherwise.

- Coordinate project logistics with unit leaders and project sponsors; participate in staff and member meetings; and serve as programmatic and administrative liaison between members and staff.

- Conduct regularly scheduled team meetings designed to unify team members by building consensus, negotiating, resolving conflicts, and providing structured feedback.

- Oversee the care, safety and well-being of the team members.

- Facilitate, encourage, support, and model service-learning integration. Conduct or coordinate training such as skill building workshops, safe work practices, team-building exercises, mini-courses, and physical conditioning.

- Manage budget for spikes and submit written reports on project progress, achievements, and accomplishments; member evaluations; and special activities or incidents. Maintain daily records, leave of absence requests, service forms, etc.

- Monitor clean-up of common areas of living quarters, room cleanliness, uniform appearance, desk-staffing, quiet hours, and adherence to all AmériCorps*NCCC policies. Support residential life experience through conflict mediation, crisis intervention, counseling, etc.

- Represent AmériCorps*NCCC in local communities and to the media.

SUPERVISORY ROLE
The team leader, working closely with a unit leader, accomplishes daily tasks as assigned. Potentially difficult or controversial problems are referred to a unit leader for guidance, advice, or resolution. Team leaders are evaluated on day-to-day activities, service project objectives, supervisory skills, setting a positive model for team members, interaction with others, regulatory compliance, soundness of judgment, and timeliness of action.
KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS, AND ABILITIES

- Ability to supervise, inform, set proper standards, organize, and motivate a team of diverse 18- to 24-year-old members.

- Knowledge of leadership principles, small group dynamics, team building, problem-solving, decision making, communication, counseling, and conflict management.

- Experience conducting community outreach and good interpersonal skills.

- Background in developing, implementing and evaluating high quality service projects.

- Willingness to understand and abide by all AmeriCorps*NCCC policies and procedures.

- Willingness to understand and respect confidentiality.

- Good driving record with a valid driver’s license. Driver safety training will be provided.

- Flexibility and adaptability to live in a dormitory, work long and intense hours, adhere to the military aspects of the AmeriCorps*NCCC, and a limited cafeteria menu.

LIVING ALLOWANCE AND EDUCATION AWARD

Team leaders receive a living allowance of $12,500, room and board, and limited health and child care benefits during the term of service. Like AmeriCorps*NCCC members, team leaders will receive a post-service education award of $4,725 following the successful completion of the program.
