

Corporation for National and Community Service
Board of Directors

Resolution

WHEREAS, James Siegal served with dedication and distinction between 2010 and 2012 in the mission-critical role of Chief of Staff for the Corporation for National and Community Service, providing outstanding leadership in developing a dynamic senior team and fostering a culture of collaborative leadership and innovative thinking across the agency; and

WHEREAS, James Siegal, upon assuming his role in February, 2010, an important inflection point for the agency, spent time listening to staff and stakeholders and applied the agency's rich history, experience and strengths towards the work of embarking on the new direction established by the Serve America Act; and

WHEREAS, James Siegal's keen diplomacy and strategic communications with stakeholders in the legislative and executive branches led to the on-going support for the agency's established programs and appropriate funding levels to further the agency's important mission, even during tough economic times; and

WHEREAS, James Siegal's skillful leadership has helped the agency to bolster the credibility for national service and social innovation as cost effective ways to strengthen communities and foster civic engagement and continues to encourage the team to identify methods to demonstrate service as a solution and a pathway to opportunity;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, this 8th day of March, 2012, that the Board of Directors for the Corporation for National and Community Service expresses its deep admiration for James Siegal, and gratitude for his collaborative leadership, outstanding critical thinking and indefatigable passion and dedication to bettering communities through service and social innovation and wishes him well in his new position as Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer for KaBOOM! and in all of his future endeavors.

Passed by notational ballot, March 8, 2012