External Reviewer's Summary Comments:

Strengths:

Due to the growing population of the younger generation moving to the city, the senior population is left without family support. This isolation increases the need for assistants.

Veterans and military families will be provided with information on updates for medical and benefit plans as well as help with home medical supplies.

Areas of interest and expertise will be identified in volunteers at enrollment.

The project director will be responsible for collecting the outcome and output data.

Weaknesses:

Details on the type of trainings that volunteers receive were not offered.

A sufficient plan was not supplied in regards to graduating volunteers without disruption to the program.
