Feedback for applicant

Within the application narrative, the applicant includes data on beneficiary GED graduation status. The applicant does not show results that tie changes in outcomes of beneficiaries to the impact of the program model in a way that excludes other alternative reasons for the outcomes.

Rating Justification

The applicant's level of evidence is "pre-preliminary." Within the application narrative, the applicant includes data on participants' GED graduation status, citing a 45% increase in GED graduates in the past three years, with the assistance of the AmeriCorps grant.
