

Name: _____

Date: _____

Text-to-World Connections

---

Choose a book you have read. Think about parts of the book that remind you of real life or universal themes (e.g., friendship). Write or draw about them in the boxes below.

Title: _____

Author: _____

In the book ...

In the world ...

Name: _____

Date: _____

Text-to-World Connections

Choose a book you have read. Think about parts of the book that remind you of real life or universal themes (e.g., friendship). Write or draw about them in the boxes below.

Title: Julian's Glorious Summer
Author: Ann Cameron

In the book ...

Julian is embarrassed about being afraid.

Julian tells a lie and that leads to trouble.

When Julian tells the truth, things get easier for him.

Julian learns how to ride a bike and isn't scared anymore.

In the world ...

Kids get embarrassed about being afraid.

Lying can get you into trouble.

Telling the truth can make things better.

Once you try something, it might not be so scary.