

CNCS and AmeriCorps Alums are committed to supporting your lifetime of service.

See the helpful tips below to start preparing for “life after AmeriCorps” today!

Happy AmeriCorps Graduation!

When your journey includes AmeriCorps, all roads lead to getting things done! Celebrate your service and explore all the resources we have to support you in your year of service and beyond.

Share Your AmeriCorps Pride

As an AmeriCorps alum, you're part of a national network of civic leaders. More than 900,000 Americans have joined AmeriCorps since 1994. Together, you contributed 1.2 billion hours of service to 15,000 community-based organizations!

- Learn about AmeriCorps Alums: This independent organization includes alums from across the country and offers many free resources to help you maximize your national service experience and connect with other alums in your community. If you are interested in the tools and connections available through AmeriCorps Alums, you will need to register with them at AmeriCorpsAlums.org.
- Identify as an AmeriCorps alum on social media: Do your friends, followers, and connections on Facebook, Twitter, and LinkedIn know you served? Put AmeriCorps in your profile.
- Talk about AmeriCorps at work: More than 200 corporations, nonprofits, and other organizations have signed up as Employers of National Service, recognizing AmeriCorps as valuable for developing skills necessary for the workplace.

Explore Career Pathways

Having AmeriCorps experience on your resume matters. Learn more about how to translate AmeriCorps into a career.

- Find jobs with Employers of National Service: More than 200 Employers of National Service are committed to recruiting national service alumni. For tips on connecting with employers, visit NationalService.gov/CareerTips. For a list of participating Employers of National Service, visit NationalService.gov/Employers.

- Access professional development: Visit the Professional Development link at AmeriCorps Alums to find resources including a career center, a monthly career newsletter, and webinars. Also visit their LinkedIn group which is a great forum for career resources, jobs, and professional networking. Check out this Tip Sheet of the top 5 skills you learned through service to help translate your service experience to potential employers.
- Get inspired: Read stories of alums, and their journey from service to leadership, on the AmeriCorps Alums blog. New profiles are shared weekly and a great way for you to share your story too!

Advance Your Education with Your Segal AmeriCorps Education Award

Build on the knowledge and skills you learned in AmeriCorps by using your education award to earn your degree or pay back loans.

- Get your questions answered: Learn where, when, and how to use the award, the tax implications of using it, and more. Also watch AmeriCorps Alums’ webinar on using your award effectively on their Professional Development page at AmeriCorpsAlums.org.
- Find a school: View a list of schools that match your award or provide additional financial incentives to AmeriCorps alumni at NationalService.gov/Alumni. Attend an AmeriCorps Alums Virtual Grad School Fair which brings top graduate schools to you! Visit the AmeriCorps Alums Events Calendar to view fair dates.
