

Corporation for National and Community Service
Board of Directors

Resolution

WHEREAS, Eric Tanenblatt has served with dedication and distinction as Member of the Board of Directors for the Corporation for National and Community Service since June 6, 2008 and Vice Chair since 2010 and provided valuable leadership; and

WHEREAS, Eric Tanenblatt has provided steadfast direction as Chair of the Board's Oversight, Governance and Audit Committee, offering guidance to fellow Members, sound advice to Executive Managers and open communications with the Inspector General to advance the agency's drive for excellence in all aspects of its management and accountability; and

WHEREAS, Eric Tanenblatt has tirelessly advocated for the value of service and volunteering in the fabric of our nation, contributing to the first-ever passage of reauthorization for the Corporation and its programs in the 2009 Edward M. Kennedy Serve America Act; and

WHEREAS, Eric Tanenblatt has bolstered the Board's strong tradition of bi-partisanship and external relations through his extensive collaboration with our nation's mayors and governors, ensuring that they are aware of the great work being done by national service members in their cities and states; and

WHEREAS, Eric Tanenblatt has truly personified the value of service and volunteering as the founder of Hands on Georgia and his on-going work to engage community members throughout Georgia in local volunteer opportunities that benefit both the community and the volunteer; and

WHEREAS, Eric Tanenblatt has dedicated his life to the service of others, to this nation, and to his home state, serving in the administration of President George H.W. Bush as Director of Intergovernmental Affairs at the Peace Corps and then becoming Chief of Staff to Governor Sonny Perdue before returning to his role as Senior Managing Director at McKenna, Long, and Aldridge Law Firm; therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED, this 15th day of May, 2013, that the Board of Directors for the Corporation for National and Community Service, with great respect and affection, gratefully recognizes the outstanding contributions of Eric Tanenblatt as Vice Chairman of the Board of Directors.

Laysha Ward
Chair

Resolution 2013-02