Which Tool?

5. Services and Reimbursable Costs Only allowable services supporting grant objectives are charged as direct costs of the grant as approved in the budget. The costs for travel, meals, conferences, training, and other incidental costs conform to cost principles and the organization's policies limiting these costs. Documentation includes the content of the event to which these costs are incidental and participants. Travel costs, including transportation, lodging, subsistence, and other costs associated with travel status, are charged to the grant when travel is essential for carrying out grant objectives and when costs do not exceed charges allowed by the organization in its normal operations. Only memberships, subscriptions, and professional activities related to grant objectives are charged to the grant. Costs identified as unallowable by federal circular, statute, regulation, or prohibited by the grant agreement are not charged to the grant.
6. Records Retention Financial records, supporting documents, statistical records, and all other records pertinent to grant are retained for a period of three years after the submission of the final expenditure report, the required annual reports, or the record was used in response to an audit/funding.
