

Touching Base to Keep Members Connected and on Track (2 of 3)

Addell Anderson of Michigan AmeriCorps Partnership (Detroit, MI)

Addell: Although they do get their AmeriCorps journals, I also send them a journal question through email. And sometimes the question is a private question, sometimes it's on citizenship, and then there are other times that I ask them to share that with the other members so that when we come together for our monthly meetings, we talk about that particular question, and we may break up into small groups and deal with it that way.
