

AmeriCorps NOFO – Veterans and Military Families Focus Area

Friday, December 20 at 1 pm EST

AmeriCorps – Veterans and Military Families General Call: This call is directed at the broader audience of grant applicants for VMF-focused AmeriCorps programs. We will discuss:

- Program models that have been successful in this space
- Critical aspects of performance measurement for VMF programs
- Key elements of developing an evidence basis and measuring performance in line with requirements (for all AmeriCorps grants, and the measures for VMF programs in particular)
- AmeriCorps programs that model each of the areas that the Serve America Act specifies in which national service programs can have a positive impact on veterans and military families

Please join us for this call if you are interested in learning about ways to support veterans and military families and involve them in AmeriCorps programs, or you want further guidance on performance measures associated with this grant.

The call will include a presentation via WebEx.
